Re: Unopposed First Request for Continuance of December 5, 2019 Status
Conference in Azria v. BCBG Max Azria Global Holdings, LLC, No. 17-CV-6500

Dear Judge Daniels:

I write as counsel to Lubov Azria, the appellant in the above-referenced bankruptcy appeal, to request a one-month continuance of the status conference set for December 5, 2019, at 9:45 a.m. See Docket No. 24 (August 12, 2019 Endorsement on parties' Status Report). No prior requests for continuance of this status conference have been made, and counsel for the appellee consents to this request.

As detailed in the parties' most recent status report [Docket No. 25], the parties have been engaged in efforts to reach a global resolution of all issues between them – including not only the above-referenced appeal, but also certain proofs of claim filed in the underlying bankruptcy case and an adversary proceeding styled MacGreevey v. Azria Enterprises, Inc., et al. (In re Runway Liquidation Holdings, LLC), Adv. Proc. No. 19-01354-SCC (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.). These efforts have been complicated by the unexpected passing of Lubov Azria's husband, the late Max Azria. Nonetheless, the parties have continued to work toward a global resolution, and I am cautiously optimistic that an agreement can be reached in the coming weeks. Accordingly, I respectfully request that the Court continue the December 5, 2019 status conference to a date in early January 2020.

To the extent the Court does not continue the December 5, 2019 status conference, I respectfully request in the alternative that I be allowed to appear telephonically. My office is in Los Angeles, and later in the day on December 5, 2019 I am slated to appear in another court (the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California) on another matter in Santa Ana, California.

Hon. George B. Daniels, U.S. District Judge

I thank the Court for considering this request.

Respectfully submitted,
